Catering

Fullfilled is a small Leyland based company that has been established since 2005. Due to the success and reputation of its sandwich shop, which offers a wide selection of superior quality hot and cold sandwiches and snacks, Fullfilled have ventured into catering solutions, servicing both private and corporate clients locally.

Our success to date has been recognised through our high quality standards, preparation, attention to detail and professional service. We pride ourselves on using fresh ingredients supplied locally.

Corporate Catering

Fullfilled can provide in-house catering for local businesses providing delicious solutions for your working lunches, conferences, client visits, training days and other functions.

It is our aim to ensure we supply a quality service with the key aim of portraying the best possible impression to your guests whatever the occasion. We are able to provide working breakfasts, buffet lunches and hot buffet meals.

Our menu pricing easily allows you to cost out your event. We can however provide quotations for any specific requirements or menu options not listed.
